Wentworth On Top in Longren-Aeronca Merger

Hampden Wentworth, former president of Longren Aircraft Co., Inc., which was merged with the Aeronca Mfg. Corp. of Middletown, O. last day, has been named a director and vice-president of the newly merged firm and general manager of the Longren-California Div. of Aeronca. The new division of Aeronca will continue to operate as a manufacturer of aircraft components, according to John A. Lawler, president, who announced Wentworth's appointment.

As a result of the merger, shareholders of Longren received 1/10th of a share of Aeronca common stock and 2/100ths of a share of Aeronca 5 1/2 per cent prior cumulative for each share of Longren common stock.

Sales of Longren Aircraft Co. Inc. for the fiscal year ended last August 31 were $5,870,000. During 1958 Aeronca sales totalled $24,000,000.
